DON'T MISS THIS!

GILLON has a large stock of Boots, Shoes, Clothing, Men's Furnishings, etc. He is closing them out at cost. Everyone knows Gillon, and when he says Cost, you pay no more. Hundreds of people are taking advantage of this great Slaughter Sale. Do not doubt and pay more for goods. Come and see for yourself.

T. S. Shroat still has a few bugles to sell at the lowest prices.

Picture frames at low prices. J. M. BROTHER.

WANTED.—A few copies OUTLOOK of Nov. 20, 1902. OUTLOOK OFFICE.

The late David Ratliff was not a pensioner, as was erroneously stated last week.

The Sunday-school children enjoyed a fine treat at the Christian Church Sunday.

I handle the noted Elkhorn Whiskey. There is no better made. J. W. LANE, Owingsville, Ky.

If you want an auctioneer I am your man. Terms reasonable. M. D. FARIS.

Oscar Chandler moves his store to Miss Jennie Elliott's business house on Main St. the first of January.

George A. Peed bought the tobacco crop of Geo. Carpenter and James Warner, of upper State Creek, at 54c.

Frank P. Hendrix has bought out John Markland's interest in the Markland beef shop to take effect Jan. 1st.

The Fiscal Court met Monday to receive bids for keeping the Poorhouse. The Court will meet again Jan. 20th to consider the bids.

On Tuesday and Wednesday nights of last week there were more roman candles and cannon crackers shot in the streets than ever before.

Friday morning was the coldest of the season, the thermometer being only 8 degrees above zero. Snow has covered the ground since.

PERSONAL.

Seth Botts' little daughter Bertha has grip.

Clay Donnan returned Friday from a business trip.

Mrs. T. J. Jones is much improved from her illness.

R. S. Estill came down from Ashland Friday night.

Woodson Shroat, of Mt. Sterling, was here Friday.

Mrs. Margaret Honaker is convalescent from her illness.

Rev. E. A. Walton left Sunday afternoon for a trip to Chicago.

Ollie Coons went to Cincinnati Thursday, returning Saturday.

James Carter, of Frickly Ash, has been suffering with gall-stone colic.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ramey, of Howard's Mill, were in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Melissa Gault, after a severe illness, is able to walk about the room.

Miss Jennie Elliott was seriously sick last week, but is able to be up again.

Mrs. Walter Harper, of Mt. Sterling, is with her mother, Mrs. Eliza Dawson.

Mrs. C. M. Kennedy returned Tuesday morning from a visit at Nicholasville.

Rev. W. W. Horner, pastor of the Sharpshurg Baptist Church, was here Tuesday.

Miss Mary Gude is the guest of Miss Mary Miller Coleman, of Mt. Sterling.

B. S. Galvin spent from Saturday till Wednesday in Richmond and Lexington.

Jacob Adams, of near Grange City, returned last week from a stay at Potomac, Ill.

Ely Brown, of Burgin, Mercer Co., arrived Tuesday to visit his aunt Mrs. D. N. Young.

Rev. Ed L. Sanford went to Catlettsburg Monday to visit his brother John Sanford.

Emil Peters, of Georgetown, spent Christmas here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Peters.

David Branch, of Tilton, spent from Tuesday until Monday with his sister, Mrs. E. W. Hedlin.

Mrs. Nat Baldwin, of Nicholasville, came Wednesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Kennedy.

Miss Ida Walde, of Nicholasville, was expected Wednesday to be the guest of Mrs. C. M. Kennedy.

Mrs. S. S. Innery and children, of Rothwell, spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brother.

Miss Mary McQueen, of Louisville, arrived Friday to be the guest of Miss May Kincaid and other friends.

Miss Annie Winn Williams, of Ashland, came Tuesday to visit the family.

WASN'T A BURGLAR.—Montana Jim Miller went home Sunday night and thought he heard a burglar in the house just as he entered the door. He fired his pistol. His wife lighted a lamp and saw that he had shot her in the hand, making a slight grazing flesh wound.

FOR SALE.—A full set of bicycle and gun tools, consisting of foot lathe, brazing forge, all kinds of small tools, all kinds of bicycle and gun repairs; also 3 bicycles and 2 breech-loading guns. No other shop in town. J. A. POWER, Owingsville, Ky.

"HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE."—The children's treat at the Christian Sunday-school on last Sunday was a joyous occasion and brought cheer to many little hearts. It was not provided by any one person, as erroneously stated in last week's Outlook, but by the teachers and friends of the school.

CHRISTMAS ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Sarah Jackson had her hands severely burnt by her clothing catching from a fire in her yard at which her grandchildren were celebrating Christmas with fireworks Christmas day. Nearly all her clothing was burnt off and she had a narrow escape from serious if not fatal injury.

CHRISTMAS ACCIDENT.—David Shanks, of near Bethel, on his way home from this town one day last week lit a cannon cracker at the crossing of Flat Creek. Before he could throw the cracker out of his hand it exploded and blew off two of his fingers. His hand was badly mutilated and blood poison is feared. He went to Sherburne for treatment.

METEORITE SOLD.—W. H. Daugherty last week sold the Bluff State meteorite to Prof. Henry A. Ward, of Rochester, N. Y., who made a trip to Lexington on purpose to see it at the A. & M. College. The price was not less than $200. Prof. Miller will take it to a meeting of scientists at Washington City before turning it over to Prof. Ward.

MORGAN CO. OIL.—George Jones returned last week from a trip to the Morgan county oil fields. He brought back a sample of the 1700-foot well's oil, which is a very thin black oil and rich in the lighter components. It catches fire and burns instantly on the application of a lighted match. Only two wells have been drilled yet, but there is much territory leased and operations will be begun when machinery is available.

CARPENTER REYNOLDS WEDDING.—On Christmas eve, at the home of the bride's parents, on Jones' Branch, Elder B. H. Ross, in the presence of a large number of guests, united in marriage Mr. Michael C. Reynolds, Jr., and Miss Is. A bounteous repast and things of the season were by those present. A pretty little daughter of the bride, Mrs. Stephen Reynolds.

MASQUERADE BALL.—The great masquerade ball at the Court-house to dance the old year out and the new year in Wednesday night was being eagerly looked forward to by the dancing folks and others while this edition was coming off the press.

SUPERHUMAN FEAT.—Last Saturday while unloading a stone weighing about 800 lbs. at the railroad station at Salt Lick the skids slipped and knocked Cole Williams to the ground and stone and skids fell across Williams' shoulder, doubling him up. Bud Knox's son Morton, aged about 18 years, was the only one present, but he, by superhuman effort, lifted the stone off of Williams, a feat that would have been simply impossible under any ordinary circumstances. Williams was badly injured.

MASONS ELECTED OFFICERS.—Bath Lodge F. & A. M., No. 55, on last Saturday elected the following officers for the ensuing year: S. D. Thompson Worshipful Master, Ewing Conner Senior Warden, Henry Hopkins Junior Warden, Arthur Byron Secretary, B. F. Perry Treasurer, C. W. Honaker Steward and Tyler. The following were appointed: Conner Ewing Senior Deacon, Crit Young Junior Deacon, Reuben Gude, I. B. Conyers and J. J. Lacy Finance Committee.

A nice lunch consisting of turkey, sandwiches and coffee was partaken of by the members.

BATH SEMINARY'S FIRST TEACHER.—W. H. Daugherty received the following:

Des Moines, Iowa, Dec. 25, 1902. Compliments of the Holiday season—sincere and hearty—to the pupil of fifty-odd years ago.

I wish you length of days, health, happiness, every good thing! I long to see the old school place once more. JOHN SCOTT.

Mr. Scott was a soldier in the Mexican war and was taken prisoner with Cassius M. Clay, by the Mexicans. He came here on foot about the time Bath Seminary was completed and was employed by the Seminary company to teach the first school. He taught a number of terms subsequently. Many of his old pupils remember him and doubtless will be glad to hear that he is still alive and vigorous for one of such advanced age.

SALT LICK ITEMS.—Miss Carylon Bates and Mrs. Press Jackson left Saturday to visit their sister Mrs. Chris Whitcomb, at Ashland. The young people enjoyed a pleasant social at Tom Dickerson's residence on Xmas night. Jessie Steele and wife (nee Marie Barnes) have taken rooms at the former's mother's on Railroad.

Not SUPERSTITIOUS.—S. D. Thompson was elected Worshipful Master of the Masonic Lodge by a majority of thirteen, as were Ewing Conner and Henry Hopkins to their respective offices. In 1900 Mr. Thompson was elected Senior Warden by 13, and A. S. Strother Junior Warden by 13. In 1899 Mr. Thompson was elected Worshipful Master by 26 majority. Dud says he is always elected by 13 or a multiple of the same, and is wishing for an election by 13 on Friday to see how the combination of unluckiness will work. Dud is not in the slightest superstitious and is about as lucky and happy as the next one.

John Kautz, his son-in-law Harry Bartholomew and wife, of Clay, W. Va., are spending the holidays with the former's wife and other relatives here.

The Masons gave a free dinner in their hall here Saturday, which was enjoyed very much by the well-filled house, many people from near by towns being present.

Charlie, the 4-year-old son of W. S. Stevens, merchant here, had a large cannon cracker explode in his hand Xmas night, terribly burning and bursting the palm. Should blood poison set in amputation would probably be necessary.

The Odd Fellows had a Christmas tree in the school hall Xmas eve, which was well loaded with nice presents for all children of town and vicinity. This order should be highly complimented for the great interest they have taken for the enjoyment of the children.

W. F. Brown, our accommodating station agent, started Sunday, 21st ult., ostensibly for Cincinnati, but, it is thought, to some other place.
